Teacher: Mr R Barlow | email: rbarlow@mhs.bfet.uk

FRIDAY PM- Science

Friday 09/07/2021

Have a go at some of the experiments in the next few pages.
Think about:
What do you expect to happen?
What actually happen?
Were you right or wrong?
It does not matter if you were wrong!

Fill $3 / 4$ of the cup with water. Do you think the egg will sink or float on the water? Try it! Gently place an egg in the water. What happened?

Let's try it again-place the egg in the saltwater. Why do you think the egg floated this time?

Now try this!

Even though it's heavier, an orange with the peel on will float, while a peeled orange will sink. Why? A change in density!

[^0]YOU WILL NEED: Cup, Egg, Water, Salt

Remove the egg from the water, add 3 tablespoons of salt, and stir.

Adding salt to the water increases its buoyancy. This means that objects can now float on the water. Wow!

Did you know

Want to float like the egg in this experiment? Head to the Dead Sea! Located in the Jordan Rift Valley, this body of water is so salty and dense, people can float on top of its surface without even trying!
